

OLD SCHOOL MOTORCYCLE TRANSPORT COMPANY

Terms and Conditions for Transport

1. Customer agrees to the following terms and conditions prior to shipment with Old School Transport.

2. Customer will be responsible for completing the Shipping Form prior to vehicle being picked up and condition and damage listed on form. Old School will use the following procedure at the time of pick-up. The Old School Rep. will take photos of the vehicle (s) and fill out a pre-load inspection sheet documenting any damage, ect. prior to being loaded on the Old School Transport Vehicle.

If present, the owner will sign off on inspection sheet stipulating the condition of vehicle prior to loading.

3. It is important that the customer fully disclose the condition, weight, size and any other special features which may affect the pickup and delivery by Old School. Extra charges may be imposed due to undisclosed information that would effect the pickup and securement of the vehicle. Old School MUST be advised of any special conditions - I.e., atypically long, wide, heavy or inoperable vehicle (s).

4. Old School Truck's and Trailer's can reach most location, however, in some circumstances, conditions may exist that make it difficult or impossible to access a location. Customer MUST disclose all special conditions that may exist including weight limits, steep hills, overhanging trees, narrow streets, cul-de-sacs, low bridges, and/or other situations that the driver would encounter. If Old School cannot legally or safely pick up and/or deliver the vehicle on a "door-to-door" order, Old School may arrange with the customer to meet at a legal and safe pickup and/or drop-off location, as close as possible to the agreed location (s).

5. Old School will pickup vehicle on agreed upon date with Customer, and shall return vehicle (once required service or event is complete) on agreed date with Customer. Old School shall not be responsible for any delay in performance which is caused by circumstances beyond reasonable control, including but not limited to any Act of God, repair shop, dealer or anyone else.
